TRAVEL MATTERS - CUBA
IS - CUBA

Information furnished by [] reveals that the following U. S. citizens recently travelled from Mexico City to Havana, Cuba, via Cubana Airlines and have not returned to Mexico from Cuba as of 11/11/74 although their Mexican re-entry permits have expired. Such permits are issued to U. S. citizens travelling to Cuba if their passports are validated by the State Department for Cuban travel. If not so validated, such U. S. citizens depart Cuba by a country other than Mexico. Such a country might be the Barbados since there is a weekly Cubana Airlines flight between Cuba and Barbados.

b7D

These U. S. citizen travellers to Cuba are as follows:

SCHARFMAN, HERBERT
Age 62, born in Illinois
Occupation: press photographer
U. S. Passport #B1760664
To Cuba - 8/23/74 with re-entry permit valid for 10 days

FORMAN, LOUIS NOAH
Age 63, born in New York
Occupation: attorney
U. S. Passport number not known
To Cuba - 8/26/74 with 10 day re-entry permit

FORMAN, MOLLY BERSTEIN
Age 54, born in Pennsylvania
U. S. Passport number not known
To Cuba - 8/26/74 with 10 day re-entry permit

The following group of six U. S. citizens, all identified as newsmen, travelled together from Mexico City to Havana via Cubana Airlines on 9/27/74. They all possessed 15 day re-entry permits but did not return to Mexico from Cuba within that time. (At least one of this group, DAN RATHER, nationally known newsman, is known to have since returned to the U. S. He reportedly interviewed FIDEL CASTRO while in Cuba and the interview was shown on national TV in the U. S. about the end of 10/74.)

① MANKIEWICKZ, FRANK

It is noted the visit of the above group of six to Cuba coincided, approximately, with the trip of U. S. Senators JACOB JAVITS and CLAIBORNE PELL to Cuba from Florida in the beginning of 10/74.

MEX 108-11

Mexico City files reflect that of the above group of six, [REDACTED] MANKIEWICKZ and [REDACTED] had travelled to Cuba from Mexico on 6/28/74, apparently without State Department validation of their passports for Cuban travel, and they did not depart Cuba via Mexico at that time. (The travel of 6/28/74 reported by LHM dated 8/20/74 in captioned matter.)
